

From the Desk of Nathan DeLorey, D.C.

December 7, 2007

To whom it may concern:

Drs. Cynthia Vaughn and James Edwards receive my highest recommendation for expertise in their specialty. They are likeable, accurate, thorough and detailed. On top of that and more importantly they are honest. And because of this special combination they will surely give you the same outstanding service that they gave me.

Working with Drs. Vaughn and Edwards is truly working with the very best – just check out their credentials. When I received their report I was literally blown away by the quality and care that went into it.

A telling sign of their sterling reputation came when I relayed to a current member of a chiropractic licensing board of how they were helping me with a report. The board member's reply was clear - if Drs. Vaughn and Edwards are helping you, then you won't have any problem.

I strongly recommend Drs. Vaughn and Edwards to anyone who is need of their expertise.

Sincerely,

Nathan D. DeLorey, D.C.
